

Can I get a Trademark on my own or do I need an attorney?

The United States Patent and trademark Office recommends that you hire an attorney. Although not required, it's advisable. Only an attorney can be your official voice in Trademark matters. Only an attorney can respond to communications from the USPTO. These responses are called Office Actions and can be very technical in both substance and procedure. With e-Lawyer, it won't break your budget to ensure that the registration process is performed competently and professionally.
